

Abeloth's planet

"This is a backward sort of world, don't you think, where the plants eat the animals?"

—Vestara Khai, to Olaris Rhea

This planet in the Maw was inhabited by Abeloth, a dark side entity who held complete control over the planet's flora and fauna. It was notable for having numerous physical locations that corresponded to metaphysical locations in the realm known as beyond shadows. In 43.5 ABY, Abeloth sent a call out through the Force, taking control over the Sith Meditation Sphere Ship and forcing him to travel to the world. The Lost Tribe of Sith sent a strike team under the command of Lady Olaris Rhea to recover Ship and kill Jedi Grand Master Luke Skywalker. The strike team tracked Ship to Abeloth's planet and sent a landing party to the planet to search for the Meditation Sphere, but the world's deadly wildlife claimed the lives of many of the Sith. Eventually, the Sith found Abeloth, who agreed to protect them from the planet's dangers; although she also secretly prevented Ship from returning to the Tribe and allowed many of the Sith to die. Finally, after discovering that Skywalker and his son, Jedi Knight Ben Skywalker, were at Sinkhole Station, a space station in the Maw, Abeloth allowed Ship to return to the Tribe to carry the few surviving Sith to the Station to attack the Jedi. Later, in 44 ABY, a joint Jedi and Sith fleet under the command of Luke Skywalker and Sith High Lord Sarasu Taalon traveled to the world and battled with Abeloth, defeating her.
